United Way Awards $42,000 in Grants to Wayne County Orgs

The United Way Wayne County Fund Distribution committee recently awarded $42,000 to 12 community organizations providing services directly to Wayne County residents. The monies were raised during the last United Way campaign by individuals and businesses who specifically wanted to support services for people in Wayne County. The Wayne County Division--United Way Fund Distribution Committee is comprised entirely of volunteers who live and/or work in Wayne County. Pictured above from left, standing, back row, Gary Drapek, United Way president; Don Broderick, the Arc of Northeastern Pennsylvania; Joe Walsh, Catholic Social Services of Wayne County; Michael Curran, Honesdale EMS; Deb Peterson, Voluntary Action Center of NEPA; Cathy Wilcox, Lupus Foundation of PA/Pocono-NE Branch; Fr. Martin Boylan, Housing Partnership of Wayne County. Seated, same order: Tina Hoehn Figura, Wayne County YMCA; Kathy Grandjean, Honesdale Communities That Care; Margaret Burchell, Habitat for Humanity; Michele Minor Wolf, Victims' Intervention Program and Debby Mendicino, Pegasus Child Advocacy Center. The Wayne County Public Library was missing from the photo.
